

Blossburg Visions in Business & Entertainment
Minutes of the Monthly Meeting
August 22, 2012

Location: The Brick

Administrative Information

Minutes - July Minutes received and approved

Treasurer – Had a bill from the Holiday Market that was left over from the Chicken BBQ.

Projects

Fall Festival – Sponsors Letter → $50 get logo on advertising and on t-shirt. Less than $50 will get a mention in Advertising. The Mayor referred a band that is interested in playing at the Fall Festival for $200. Looking for “acts” to interact with the crowd. B.E.S.T. will be joining us again this year. KC101 is booked. We need haybales for seating and sound proofing of the generators. Need to work out a schedule of events. We’ll need a rollback for the Hot Dog Eating contest again this year.

Electric Panel – Waiting to hear back from Penelec.

Newsletter – Have your articles and updates to Heidi by September 1st. Possible articles: Encourage people to carve pumpkins and place them on their doorstep on Oct. 31st, Walking trail, Light Up the Holidays, a section inviting businesses to Blossburg.

Walking Trail – They have the brush cleared all the way around. We’re looking for additional grant opportunities.

Community Garden – It’s going good.

Trees on Main St. – It’s been asked that we look into possible tree ideas for Main St.

Other – A new idea was brought up to hold a “Small Town Christmas” event on the Sunday after Thanksgiving. Everyone was interested in the idea. Julie Nowak to head up the activity. Also, it was brought up that we might want to look into solar powered lights for the trees on Main St. for the holiday season.
